Education:

Portland School of Art:
BFA, Graphic Design.

Kodak Center for Creative Imaging:
Summer design residency.

Massachusetts College of Art:
Degree courses in film making and photography.

Professional & resourceful:

I spent the early part of my career working for letterpress, screen printing, offset printing, sign and exhibit design shops. These experiences taught me the many languages that support the advertising & design professions.

Creative direction & teamwork:

wether it’s turning meeting notes into a creative brief, working solo, or guiding and nurturing a creative team, i enjoy working with agencies of any size or directly with a brand.

Active in the fine arts:

I express myself creatively through letterpress printing, making handmade clothing, public art, screen printing, and medium format film photography, to name a few.
